

Bowman's Hill Wildflower Preserve's 2010 WINTER LECTURE SERIES

Sunday Afternoons at the Preserve Visitor Center
2:00 - 3:00 p.m.

JANUARY 10

The Story of a Bucks County Green Roof - Barbara Geller and Jane Wilson

Free

JANUARY 17

Natural Treasure in Every Season - Mary Anne Borge

JANUARY 24

Meadows on the Menu - Tama Matsuoka

JANUARY 31

Native Plants in Containers - Marcia Tate

FEBRUARY 7

Nipping Invasive Species in the Bud - Rachel Mackow and Melissa Almendinger

FEBRUARY 14

Flowers and Pollinators: A Partnership that Changed the World - Beatriz Moisset

FEBRUARY 21

Edible Wild Plants and Their Place in Modern Life - Lee Allen Peterson

FEBRUARY 28

Bats: Flight and Fantasy in the Night - Sandy Yerger

Cost per lecture :

Preserve members/Students: $8

Non-members: $10

Special January 10 lecture FREE, compliments of

Bowman's Hill Wildflower Preserve

SPECIAL OFFER: Purchase a book of tickets for the complete series and save 20%!*

Preserve members and fulltime students: $45 (full price: $56)

Non-members: $56 (full price: $70)

Ticket books may be purchased by calling the Preserve or at the door.

For more information or to pre-register call (215) 862-2924

Walk-ins welcome as space permits

Bowman's Hill Wildflower Preserve

1635 River Road, 2.5 miles south of New Hope.

P.O. Box 685 • New Hope, PA 18938 • www.bhwp.org

