

BOWMAN'S HILL WILDFLOWER PRESERVE

2007 Winter Lecture Series
Sunday Afternoons in January & February
at the Preserve Visitor Center
2 - 3 p.m.

- January 7      Creating a Wildlife Habitat in a Shrinking Forest - *Free***
                    Liz McDowell
- January 14     Wildflowers in Winter - Carol Levine
- January 21     Beyond the Grass Ceiling - Nancy Beaubaire
- January 28     Native Pollinators: How Are They Affected by Land-Use Change?
                    Dr. Neal Williams
- February 4     Managing Invasive Earthworms for Forest Restoration -
                    Dr. Anne Bower and Dennis Burton
- February 11    Pennsylvania Seasonal Pools Registry - Sally Ray
- February 18    Milkweeds for Monarchs - Clay and Pat Sutton
- February 25    Think Spring: Close-up on Wildflowers - Frank Plucinsky

Cost per lecture:

Preserve members/Full-time students: $8

Non-members: $10

**Special January 7 lecture FREE,*

compliments of

Bowman's Hill Wildflower Preserve

Special offer: Purchase a book of tickets for the complete series and save 20%!

Preserve members and students: $45 (full price: $56)

Non-members: $56 (full price: $70)

Ticket books may be purchased in advance by calling the Preserve or will be available at the door.

For more information or to pre-register call (215) 862-2924

Walk-ins welcome as space permits

Bowman's Hill Wildflower Preserve is located at 1635 River Road, 2.5 miles south of New Hope.

P.O. Box 685 New Hope, PA 18938 www.bhwp.org